

The office building in Glæsibær is approx. 10.000 m², eight floors and two basement floors. The first three floors are used as a health centre by the Blue lagoon but most of the other floors are used for doctor's offices. The building has five fully equipped surgeries.

Between the new building and the old Glæsibær IAV also constructed a car park on three floors with 400 spaces.

Customer

Alftaros

Architects

Teiknistofan Odinstorgi

Project start

May 2006

Project finish

November 2008

Project managers

Jon Orn Jakobsson
Gisli Ludvik Kjartansson

Site managers

Boas Jonsson
Ossur Emil Fridgeirsson

Structural engineering

VSO

Electrical engineering

Engineering office of Johann Indridason

HVAC engineering

VGK Engineering now Mannvit

Security systems and fire

VSI Engineering

Landscaping design

Landark

